MOSQUITORETTS

Says Dr. Pratt,
"Just swat the brat,
Put it to him hard—
The speckled brute,
Just see him scot!
He fears the mighty guard."

It is too late in the season now for Mr. Day Mosquito to attempt to Currie favor with the Board of Health.

If the yellow fever mosquito is the speckled beauty that he is said to be, why should yellow fever not be known as "speckled fever?"

According to scientists, mosquitoes are sometimes known to travel a distance of forty miles. If this be true, why is it not reasonable to suppose that the yellow fever carriers which were known to exist on board the Maru might have given their Waikiki brethren an invitation to dine on a yellow fever patient on board the vessel, thereby inoculating the whole of Waikiki?
